ABOUT ILSA

The International Law Students Association (ILSA) is a non-profit organization of students and lawyers formed to promote international law by providing students and lawyers with the requisite opportunities to explore the international legal arena.

The ILSA is the home of the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition, the largest moot court competition in the world, hosting over 700 law schools across 100 countries. Apart from this, the ILSA's activities span from academic conferences and discussions to publications and academic resources.

The ILSA aims to educate students and lawyers around the world in the principles and purposes of international law, encourage communication from different parts of the globe to promote international understanding, contribution to legal education, provide opportunities and assistance to law students and lawyers as well as engage in other activities related to the development and promotion of international law, study and practice generally.

ABOUT SLS ILSA

School of Legal Studies (SLS) is one of the oldest law schools in India. Initially a part of Kerala University in 1962, SLS joined the Cochin University family in the year 1971. SLS has made valuable contributions to the study and research of law, offering LL.B, LL.M and PhD programs.

In the spirit of exploring and furthering legal research, SLS has accommodated various organizations and clubs under its wing, including the Justice V.R Krishna Iyer Chair on Human Rights, Cochin University Legal Aid Clinic (CULAC), Cochin University Human Rights Association (CUHRA) and UGC SAP on Corporate Governance, to name a few.

In its latest endeavour, the School of Legal Studies has introduced a chapter of the International Law Students Association for promoting and advocating international law, study and research.

In keeping the true spirit of the ILSA, the SLS Chapter of ILSA introduces the Colloquium on Public International Law.

ABOUT THE COURSE

The Certificate Course on Maritime Law offers a comprehensive exploration of the legal principles and regulations governing activities at sea.

Whether you are an aspiring maritime lawyer, a professional in the maritime industry, or simply intrigued by the legal dimensions of maritime affairs, this course equips you with essential knowledge and skills to navigate the complex field of Maritime Law.

Throughout the course, participants will engage in interactive learning experiences, case studies, and discussions to deepen their understanding of Maritime Law. You will analyze real-world scenarios and examine the legal frameworks regulating maritime activities across diverse nations and international bodies.

Moreover, the course delves into the ethical considerations associated with maritime operations and the pivotal role of Maritime Law in promoting peaceful, secure, and sustainable use of the world's oceans for the benefit of all.

Upon completing the course, participants will possess a robust foundation in Maritime Law, enabling them to navigate legal intricacies within the maritime sector proficiently. Graduates will be poised to contribute to the development of policies and regulations that shape maritime activities, ensuring the responsible utilization of our planet's vast maritime resources.

In the vast expanse of the ocean, Maritime Law serves as the compass guiding humanity's voyage towards justice, security, and the sustainable stewardship of our marine realm.
